For over seventy years, the La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club has had a long-standing tradition of community involvement, and is dedicated to the sport of tennis. A literal who's who among tennis greats has graced the courts of the Club, including Jack Kramer, Ted Schroeder, Pancho Segura, Jimmy Connors, John McEnroe, and Arthur Ashe among many others. The La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club hosted the 2006 Davis Cup First Round Tie when the United States defeated Romania, and most recently hosted the 2008 Fed Cup Quarterfinals where the United States defeated Germany. The La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club continues to host the Pacific Coast Men's Doubles Championship in March, and in December, the USTA National 40 Hard Court Championships, as well as the USTA National Father/Son and Grandfather/Grandson Hard Court Championships.

La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club, Inc. is a fourth-generation, family-owned and operated company dedicated to the operation of a 14-acre beachside resort in La Jolla, California. The resort includes three properties including the exclusive La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club, the 128-room La Jolla Shores Hotel oceanfront hotel and the historic Marine Room restaurant. Resort amenities include 14 championship tennis courts, a nine-hole Par-3 golf course, two swimming pools, two additional oceanfront restaurants and cocktail lounges and one of Southern California's only private beaches.
