La Jolla, Calif. - (October 03, 2006) – The holidays are a time of friends, family and celebration. What better way to indulge than with lunch in the Marine Room? During the month of December the Marine Room will open for lunch from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays so that everyone can experience the magic of the winter holidays along with the spectacular panoramic views of the Pacific. Executive Chef, Bernard Guillas, has created a special holiday lunch menu sure to tempt you into creating your own holiday tradition at the Marine Room. (Copy of complete menu follows).

Located directly on the sands of La Jolla Shores the Marine Room allows diners to enjoy sweeping views of the coastline while waves roll right up to the windows. Patrons seated window-side during an unusually high tide can savor the food as the surf cascades off windows only a few inches away.
