NATIONAL SENIOR HARD COURT CHAMPIONSHIP TENNIS TOURNAMENTS
RETURN TO LA JOLLA BEACH & TENNIS CLUB MAY 8-14

Watch the best senior Men and Women tennis players in the country vie for national titles

La Jolla, Calif. - (March 28, 2017) – The La Jolla Beach & Tennis Club, one of California's most treasured beachfront resorts for over 80 years, will host the United States Tennis Association (USTA) May Hard Courts Seniors Tournament for Women and Men on Monday, May 8, through Sunday, May 14. Players from all over the world, ages 50 to 90+ will compete in this advanced level tournament, making for an amazing week of tennis for players and spectators alike.

The women's events will include both singles and doubles in the 50 and over, 60 and over, 70 and over, 80 and over, and 90 and over age groups. These events are national championships and will attract the best players from all over the country in each age group, making this field of competitors the strongest in the country in each age division.

The La Jolla Beach & Tennis Club's 45th Annual Men's Senior Championships will also take place that week in conjunction with the women's events, and will include both singles and doubles for 60 and over, 65 and over, 70 and over, 75 and over, 80 and over, and 85 and over age groups. Although the men's events are not national championships, they will feature many senior players who regularly compete in national tournaments. Total participation for both the men's and women's tournaments is expected to be 300-plus players.

Draws will be posted at the Beach Club and will be available via LJBTC.com. Matches are expected to start Monday at 9 a.m., Tuesday through Friday at 8 a.m., and on Saturday and Sunday at 9 a.m.

La Jolla Beach & Tennis Club welcomes tennis enthusiasts to view the tournament with free admission. Tournament attendees and spectators are also invited to dine at the Club's Snack Bar and Club Dining restaurant during the tournament. Please note there is a nominal fee for on-site parking.
